Foreign Miscellany.

The most interesting event among royalties last week was the birth of another son to the new King and Queen of Portugal. The youngster was promptly christened, receiving only the name of Manuel.

Empress Frederick and her two daughters are touring in Greece. At the end of the month they will proceed to Naples, where they will stay five weeks. Early in January the Empress will meet her mother, the Queen of England, at Florence.

It is rumored in Vienna that Prince Ferdinand, of Bulgaria, has been privately be-trothed to Princess Louise d'Orleans, the only daughter of Duke d'Alencon, whose mother is the youngest sister of Francis Joseph. Ferdinand is a first cousin of the Dake d'Alencon.

There is a Thomas Nelson Page boom in London. Whether it was brought about by interest in the personality of Page, who spent the summer in England, does not ap pear, but the boom exists. The last Specta-tor contains an eulogistic notice of "In Old Virginia," and an essay on Page's writings will appear in an early number of the New Review. The young Virginian made many friends in England.

Emperor William and his wife reached Potsdam Friday. On Thursday the Kaiser met his Austrian brother in Ionsbruck, and the meeting was undeniably cordial. In honor of the district, Emperor Francis Joseph was dressed in the uniform of his Tyrolese Jager regiment. The monarchs were as affusive in their embraces as a conwere as effusive in their embraces as a cou-ple of school girls. William, standing on the step of his saloon car, began kissing his hand to Francis Joseph as soon as he caught a glimpse of him, and jumping from the train before it had stopped, flung bimself into the Austrian monarch's arms. When the kissing had concluded, Francis Joseph, reversing the order of things natural among common folks, bowed low to the German Empress and solemnly saluted the imperial her foot. The cancer it, worse under the pre-scribed treatment, and the too, and one ide of the foot wer, at length outen entirely away. The patient could not have survived much longer, but I commonced the use of Swift' specific, and it cured her sound well. That is three man icured her sound went find a large years ago, and there has been no return if the disease. I regard wift's dyselfie a most lacel lent medicine for those diseases, as its tendency is to drive out it posson.

THE GAZETTE, chronologically, is in the NINETIETH year of its existence, and is not only the oldest paper in the State, but, with few exceptions, in the country. Notwithstanding the fulness of its years, it has kept, and will continue to keep, abreast of the times in all that pertains to a news paper, furnishing its readers daily with a perfect mirror of passing events, domestic and foreign. Its facilities for obtaining news as they increase are taken advantage of and used for the benefit of its readers, who are thus kept thoroughly posted as to all that is of interest politically, socially, financially or commercially.

Special attention is given to mat-

ters concerning the State and its welfare, while its local columns contain all that is of the slightest interest to Alexandrians. Its regular correspondence from Washington and Richmond are features of peculiar interest, as attested by the eagerness with which they are read and copied by other papers, while its editorial department, conducted with reference to the best interests of the city, State and country, will continue to advocate what is believed to be right, just, honest and patriotic. With a view to the interest of merchants, farmers and all interested, its commercial columns are carefully edited and its market reports are acknowledged by all to be faithful and accurate. Through all this section of the State, and in all parts of the country where Virginians have located, there will the GAZETTE generally be found, and thus as an advertising medium it has few equals outside the large cities.

In the household, counting room and workshop it is an ever-welcome visitor, acceptable alike to old and young, the grave and the gay. NO MORE ROUND SHOULDERS.
